DEACON RUSTY'S REFLECTION

It's all about humility, humility, humility.

The sons of Zebedee don't come off looking too good in today's Gospel, do they? They were probably ashamed of themselves even before they asked Jesus the question, as well they should be; though not so much so as to curb their lust for power. But such was their relationship with the Lord at this point in their discipleship; they couldn't see beyond their own self-interest. All they thought about was what Jesus could do for them!

Those in real-estate tell us the three most important things when it comes to selling a home – I'm sure you've heard this – are location, location, location. It's a truism. Now a truism is something that's completely obvious to everyone – so obvious that it's not worth mentioning – except for the fact that often we need to be reminded of truisms because often we forget they ARE true. Our fallible human nature contains some amusing ironies, doesn't it?

And just as there are truisms in real estate, so too are there truisms in sanctity, in holiness, in our relationship with the Lord which are all simply three ways of saying the same thing. And the top three things we need to remember with respect to having a truly intimate relationship with the Lord are... humility, humility, and humility. But we knew that already, didn't we? As St. James reminds us in his epistle: "God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble."

Our Lady is the ideal, the heights for which we seek, as it were, in humility, for every grace that was bestowed upon her – both the trials and the joys – she responded to with even more humility. She knew who she was in relation to God – for humility is rooted in truth. She never considered her exalted position with respect to others but rather always put their needs above her own – consider her words "they have no wine" and how she supported and suffered with Our Lord during His Passion.

But how might you and I detect pride in ourselves? St. Francis de Sales gives us some practical tips. For instance, many of us speak poorly of ourselves, "Oh, that wasn't such a big thing," or "anybody could have done what I did as well – maybe better!" But how do we feel if someone honestly agrees with us? "Your right, that wasn't such a big deal and there are lots of people who could have done it better!" If we take offense that people take us at our word, we are prideful. If we try to run away and hide so that people will have to seek us out, if we take the lowest place, or say, the last place in line for communion in order to be noticed, that's pride! There is no pretense in authentic humility.

The key to authentic humility lies in obedience and doing God's will St. Francis tells us. It is God's will that we should be perfect and imitate Him to the utmost of our ability... all the while neither pretending to be wise nor pretending to be foolish, humility is rooted in truth. Our objective in life is that simple. Actually, doing it requires all the grace Our Lord is willing to bestow on us.

Let me leave you with a final thought. Since true humility is rooted in truth, Our Lady was not engaging in rhetoric or pretense when she said in her Magnificat that the Lord has "looked with favor on his lowly servant." She really and truly considered herself to BE a lowly servant and so she is with respect to God. That being the case – how much more so is that true for you and me?

REGIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Beacons of Light Planning Process. Your input regarding the Beacons of Light pastoral planning process is due by Wednesday, October 20th. Please take some time to visit the Beacons of Light website to learn more about this process and to share your comments on-line using the page for comments found on the Beacons of Light website www.BeaconsAOC.org. For those who don't use computers, we have printed copies of the plan available in the back of Church for you to review and make comments.

The final configuration of the Families of Parishes will be announced sometime around Thanksgiving. Once the new Families of Parishes are set, we will enter a pastoral planning process that will lead us to the implementation of our new Family of Parishes which will take several years to accomplish.

Archbishop Schnurr has asked everyone in the Archdiocese to keep this challenging but necessary endeavor in our prayers. He said, "It is critically important that we earnestly seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit so that we might together discern the best path forward with humility and courage. Please join me in asking for the intercession of our Blessed Mother, to whose care we have entrusted our archdiocese, that God continue to bless us with His presence and His love." Let us pray:

Mary, Mother of the Church and our Mother, present our prayer of thanksgiving to your Son.
Beg from Him the graces we need to be faithful disciples who follow Him with enthusiasm and joy.
May our witness to the love of God bear fruit in our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts.
Teach us to be God's joyful witnesses,
to radiate Christ in all we do,
so that all people might know, love and follow your Son through this life and into the next.
Amen.

Your Help is Needed In the Cause for Life.

The US Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) is urging Americans to contact their senators to oppose Senate Bill 1975, the so-called Women's Health Protection Act. The Senate is expected to vote on it soon. Archbishop Joseph Naumann, Chairman of the Committee on Pro-Life Activities, called this bill "the most extreme pro-abortion bill our nation has ever seen."

Contact Senators Portman and Brown to urge them to oppose this bill. The easiest method is to use e-mail by going to the website of the USCCB at <https://www.usccb.org>. Open Issues and Actions, select Take Action from the list, click on Find Legislation, then click on Proceed to go to the USCCB's Action Center. Once there select Take Action, then find the issue related to the Women's Health Protection Act. Click on it and it will take you to a page where more information about this radical abortion bill is available. On the right side of the page, both Ohio Senators can be contacted by composing your own message or using the pre-written messages. If you don't have e-mail, call Senator Portman at 1-800-205-6446 (OHIO) and Senator Brown at 1-888-896-6446 (OHIO).
