Notes from Emmanuel's Choir Loft

From Music Director Michelle Carner

Our entrance hymn, "Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness," was penned by the Irish Anglican clergyman John S. B. Monsell, author of eleven volumes of poems and over three hundred hymns. Tragically, Monsell died in 1875 after falling from his church roof during a construction project. This hymn combines the Irish and German in true Emmanuel fashion: the tune, "Was Lebet," is from the Rheinhardt MS, a German chorale book compiled in 1754.

For our dearly departed: Heavenly Father, We entrust our beloved brothers and sisters into Your loving care. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. We place our trust in Your divine mercy, and we pray that one day we may be reunited with our loved one, in the glory of Your presence, where there is no more sorrow or pain, but only the fullness of joy and love.
