St. Gaspar Family of Parishes

Served by the Missionaries of the Precious Blood

Pastor, Fr. Anthony Fortman, C.P.P.S., Parochial Vicar, Fr. Seraphine Lesiriam, C.P.P.S., Parochial Vicar Fr. Jim "Santiago" Gaynor, C.P.P.S.

In the gospel, we will see many people welcoming Jesus into Jerusalem but the tide will soon turn. The people will turn against Christ and urge for him to be crucified. This is the human heart. So fickle. So unsure. So doubting.
But Christ loves us anyways.

It is not easy to die for someone who does not respect you. But Christ sees us as children who are in need of a savior.

Pastor's Desk

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday. On this day, the lambs were being led into Jerusalem. These lambs would be used for the sacrifice of the Passover. Jesus is the Lamb of God, who was led into Jerusalem also, who will be a sacrifice for all of us. In order for something to live, something has to die. Sin carries a very high price tag. There needs to be a payment for it. Jesus' precious blood is the payment for our sins.

Just as the lambs blood, which was used to put on the door posts of the Hebrew people in Egypt, so the angel death would pass by their home, so Christ's blood protects us from death.

Thank you Jesus for being merciful to all of us. Many times we want to be the leaders of our own lives but we will always be missing something. Christ has it all together even when we don't, that is why He needs to be the leader of our life. He needs to guide us by his words and gospel message. I know many of us don't like to hear that but we don't have it all together, we need to lean on Christ. You can't save yourself, only Christ can save you.

God bless you all,

Fr. Tony Fortman

News in Our Family

Ministers of the Chalice

A Note from Deacon Mike Prier

Ever wonder why the deacon assisting at Mass offers the faithful the Precious Blood of Christ rather than the Host? The guidelines of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops for Masses with a deacon say that the deacon “assists the priest celebrant in distributing Communion, especially as minister of the precious blood” and that “if Communion is given under both kinds, the deacon ministers the chalice.” While there may be pastoral reasons to adjust this practice, deacons serving as ministers of the chalice is the norm.

Lenten Communal Penance Service

@Emmanuel, Tuesday April 15, 6:30 pm

The Communal Penance Service at Emmanuel is a time of grace and reconciliation, inviting each of us into God's mercy.

From 6:30 to 8:00 pm, individual confessions provide the opportunity for personal healing and renewal. Beginning at 7:00 pm, we will enter into a time of deep prayer with Exposition and Benediction, drawing us into the presence of Christ.

A homily will offer reflection and encouragement, followed by a Communion Service that nourishes our souls. We will conclude in devotion, lifting our prayers through the Miraculous Medal Novena, seeking Mary's intercession as we embrace the peace and renewal of God's forgiveness.

Divine Mercy Sunday

@Emmanuel, Sunday, April 27

12:30-3:00 pm

An annual tradition at Emmanuel. Divine Mercy Sunday will include Confession, Eucharistic Adoration, Mass and the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

Holy Trinity Tenebrae

The Tenebrae service is an annual tradition at Holy Trinity. Following the Noon Stations of the Cross, we will pray a Scriptural Rosary together.

At 1:00 pm, we will gather for our distinctive Tenebrae service—a solemn and dramatic liturgy unique to Holy Trinity, marked by the gradual extinguishing of candles to symbolize the death of Christ. All are encouraged to join us for this moving expression of faith and reflection.

The Sacred Triduum

The Paschal Triduum is the most solemn and sacred time of the liturgical year, commemorating the Passion, death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. It begins with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday evening and concludes with celebrating the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night.

Mass Changes During the Triduum

Some of our regular Mass times change, so please note the schedule. One key change is the absence of morning Masses on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. The absence of morning Masses during these days allows the faithful to enter more deeply into the mystery of Christ's Passion and death.

Only One Mass on Holy Saturday

Holy Saturday is a day of silence and waiting as the Church contemplates Christ's descent into the realm of the dead. We will have one Easter Vigil, at Precious Blood beginning at 8:45 pm. Going forward we will alternate between Emmanuel and Precious Blood.

Holy Thursday, April 17

Impact

Bring faith to life.
Find life in faith.

Does your faith
impact your daily life?

*Are you ready to see and experience life differently?
This is the day! Have faith in the risen Lord.*

Most of us have moments in which we go through the motions. We get up, go to work or school, work out, go out with friends, or enjoy quiet at home, and start the next day no different than the one before.

Occasionally, something powerful happens. We hear from a friend we haven't seen in a long time; we are struck by a moment of beauty, a difficult circumstance arises, or we simply find ourselves longing for more, aching for meaning, purpose, and impact.

This month at Sunday Mass, we hear the stories of the early communities of believers and what took place after Jesus' resurrection. The lives of the apostles and those who gathered with them were turned upside down by all they experienced in Jesus' ministry, passion, death, and resurrection. They had to look at their lives differently as a result.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, their hearts and minds were opened to the love of God in unexpected and powerful ways.

In response, they shared with others: they told the stories of Jesus, gave their time and resources in care of those in need, and came together as people in community with one another.

The same thing can happen to us: let us take this Easter season to open our minds and hearts to the love of God, and respond to this love by sharing: faith, time, prayer, talents, and resources, as Christ's people together.

Impact awaits!

Every Child IS Wanted!

A 23-page guide from the National Right to Life Committee, When They Say. . .You Say, lays out detailed refutations to five categories of pro-abortion arguments.

The third category of arguments declare that every child should be a “wanted child”, and claim that any social problems of the mother make the child unwanted. They say that abortion is the solution to poverty or abuse but, in reality, killing the child does not address the social issues.

“A poor mother is still poor the day after her child is aborted.”

An abused mother still returns to an abusive situation after the abortion. Such social arguments for abortion should be countered with information on the services provided by pregnancy resource centers, and the large numbers of couples waiting to adopt babies, including babies with medical problems.

Music Notes

Notes from Emmanuel’s Choir Loft

From Emmanuel’s Music Director Michelle Carner

Hymnary.org has this interesting tale regarding our Palm Sunday processional, “All Glory, Laud, and Honor”: “Theodulph, bishop of Orleans, wrote this text around 820 while he was imprisoned at Angers, France, for conspiring against King Louis the Pious. A probably apocryphal story from the early sixteenth century states that in a Palm Sunday procession King Louis passed the prison in which Theodulph was housed and heard the imprisoned bishop singing this hymn. According to the legend the king was so moved that he freed Theodulph and decreed the singing of ‘All Glory, Laud, and Honor’ on all subsequent Palm Sundays.”

Console Arrives at St. Joseph

Exciting progress is being made on the organ as new flooring and the custom-made console are now in our choir loft. The craftsmanship and attention to detail are truly remarkable.

*QCD Gifts

A gift that keeps on giving

We're grateful to share that recent Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD) from a parishioner's 401(k) made a meaningful impact on St. Paul's and Precious Blood's Sunday offertory.

If you're age 70½ or older, you too can make a tax-free donation directly from your 401(k) or IRA to the church. This type of giving can fulfill your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) without increasing your taxable income—a win for both you and our parish.

Thanks to this thoughtful form of stewardship, we're seeing real growth in support for our mission and ministries. To learn more about how a QCD can bless both your finances and our faith community, speak with your financial advisor.

Maria Stein Shrine

Tenebrae Service

The Maria Stein Shrine of the Holy Relics will be hosting a Tenebrae Service on Wednesday, April 16th in the Adoration Chapel at 7:30pm. The Shrine is located at 2291 St. John's Rd. in Maria Stein. For more event information, visit www.mariasteinshrine.org

The word 'Tenebrae' is Latin for shadows. The purpose of the Tenebrae service is to meditate deeply on the Passion story. Christ's betrayal, abandonment, and agony are felt deeply in this prayer. However, we are left remembering that the story is not over, and that Christ will fulfill his mission in three days' time. Fr. John Tonkin will lead us as we reflect on scripture passages and hymns sung by the Quo Vadis Choir. The shadows will grow around us as candles are extinguished.
